

Please do not override the Indiana Law on Telephone solicitation. It has been working extremely well. My unsolicited telephone calls have come down drastically and so are my friends'. If something is working well in the state, there is no need to change anything with federal laws. Please leave Indiana law alone.
Thanks